About this webinar: The Central and Eastern European Region experienced the strongest growth since 2007 supported by accommodative monetary and fiscal policy. But as these stimulus measures are petering out economic challenges are on the rise. Moreover, the geopolitical conflict between Ukraine, Russia and the NATO increases the economic uncertainty significantly, in particular for Europe. Supply chain bottleneck remain unsolved so far, spurring inflation fears and threatening to undermine growth prospects in Developed Countries and Emerging Markets. During this session, Sven Schubert will discuss the economic scenarios for the CEE region and give an outlook for financial markets in 2022 and will address the challenges for the region.

About the webinar series: The «CEE-Swiss Impulse Sessions» is a monthly series of short webinars on exciting, current and relevant topics concerning Switzerland and Central Eastern Europe (CEE). It is delivered by outstanding speakers from many different backgrounds. The webinar series aims at inspiring, informing and connecting a diverse audience across industries and functions and thus advance the manifold relationships between Switzerland and all CEE countries.

Initiated in 2021 by the Chamber of Commerce Switzerland Central Europe (SEC) in Zurich, this is a joint project of all chambers of commerce in the CEE region and SEC.
